

SOCIETY

FROM PEGGY TO POLLY.

Dear Polly! Polly! Polly!

Zip—boom—bang and the curtain falls on the summer. And verily, I say unto you, Polykins, if many more people behave themselves off for the joy zone and other foreign lands, Honolulu will have to close her harbor gates and hang out the sign "Nobody Home!"

On Wednesday at the sailing of the Matsonia the wharf was fairly jam-packed with people, tearful ones and happy ones and the good ship seemed crowded to her gunwales. And the last that glorious mass of color—the hand played all the parting songs that make you want to cry and some of them old and it reminded me of "Ere, the sunbeams and the stars in thine eyes." Then the boat started to move slowly, they slowly and there was a mingled "Goodbye"—"You'll surely write"—"We'll see you next summer"—"Give my love to"—and the voices trailed out in the distance for us and for them Honolulu slipped away into the mist.

Although the diaphanous skirt has gone out, way out, we still see some of it, and the other day a vision in pink and white passed along the main street and caused a titter from the bystander. She wore a thin linen skirt which was quite narrow, and over her waist a very heavy pink silk sweater. The incongruity of the get-up was capped by a tiny velvet hat trimmed with fur.

There has been another acquisition to the younger set in Honolulu and quite a nice one at that. Miss Louise Richards, a striking brunette from Vallejo, is entertaining and being entertained by the young people. Miss Richards is visiting Lieut. and Mrs. C. J. McLeod and she spends a part of the time with Ensign and Mrs. Lowry of the U. S. S. Alert. New girls, new people in fact, are always welcome for they bring vim and vigor and new ideas. In other words "more pep." Miss Richards expects to be here until the latter part of October.

There is a new violin master at Nahou Academy who is making quite a hit. In the first place he is young and the second really a good violinist. I overheard some of the boys talking after the first appearance of Mr. Edward Ideier in the assembly hall.

"He is the master of music," said a student, "and he is very hard to see the difference of the famous 'Meditation' from Thais, anyway this is the way the conversation ran:

"Ose, that fiddle has the girls plump, looked already. I just heard it played something about his being a true artist; that his music was so filled with soulful expression."

"Well, do you wonder?" said the first speaker's companion. "He hadn't seen the girls before and every time his eyes roamed the room and rested on a pretty one he fairly scintillated with that adagio, compassionate stuff. Wait till they start twining up violin—the cuss has red hair."

Mr. Edward Ideier expects to give a concert at Punahou somewhere about October 2. I guess it is bound to be a success.

Letters have been received from Miss Ruth Soper and her sister, Blanche, telling of the wonderful time and experiences they are enjoying. The two Honolulu girls have apartments at the Charmagne and are with Mona and Margaret Hind. Pauline Schaefer, another of the popular Honolulu girls who has gone a visiting, is also going to spend some time with the Soper girls before returning.

Laura Low and Eloise Wichman have spent the summer at Telawakeet girls' camp at Rockbury, Vt., where they declared they were having the time of their young lives. The two Honolulu girls were rooming together and when last heard from were tearing to ride horseback standing up. Both of the young girls are skilled horsewomen, having spent their summers in the islands on ranches on Hawaii. Eloise expects to resume her study of music in Boston but will return to the islands next summer.

"Bud" Carter, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, left in the Matsonia and is going to spend her first winter "out" between Boston and New York. "Bud" was quite the sensation here after her debut and the island girl's very politeness has won many friends for her in the East.

There were a number of witnesses to perhaps the last of a summer flirtation at the departure of the Matsonia. He is an island boy. She is an island girl. All summer long he has motored to one of the fashionable residence districts at the unearthly hour of 5 a. m. to walk with the dainty Miss Webb through woody dells. Love-making by moonlight is altogether too old-fashioned. The rising sun is far more original. It seemed as though it was a very hard thing for those two to say goodbye and as the band struck up the familiar strains of "Alone" the little girl bowed her head in the mass of forget-me-nots (his gift) and gave vent to tears. Just as she was alone in the beginning of the summer, leaving the East in a Pullman.

Miss Lucy Gary Webb, a southern girl and visitor in Honolulu, whose engagement is announced to Lieut. Woodfin Gray Jones of the 2d Infantry.

A number of the popular army officers whose service in the islands had come to a close left for their new stations on the U. S. S. Maryland last month. The landlubbers had taken a few trips between the islands and felt themselves good sailors. They, or some of them, thought that the navy men would rather step back for the men of higher rank and on the whole the officers were expecting one grand holiday, something to be remembered. But a twist and a turn and the trip turned out to be something they will surely remember but would rather forget. One 20th century Adonis who expected such a fine trip turned his toes to the pale blue skies after the second day at sea and fairly died. Another found it very hard to eat the delicacies of the famous Maryland cook and thereby arrived in San Francisco a walking skeleton. And still a third, whose self-opinion was rather "copious," was really a fine fellow. On Neptune could cut as many capers as he chose, they did not affect him. The third day out the man went investigating things he "hadn't oughter" and took a tumble, falling into a store-room amongst potatoes and other things. This put him in the hospital for the rest of the trip. How strangely some things do shape themselves.

Capt. and Mrs. Phisterer's dinner Party.

An enjoyable party of this week was the dinner at which Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Phisterer entertained at the Country Club on Wednesday evening. The table was prettily decorated with red African daisies arranged with tulips. Covers were laid for Admiral and Mrs. Clifford Boush, Miss Geraldine Boush, Col. and Mrs. E. W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. Wilmet E. Ellis, Paymaster and Miss Gray, Miss Lucy Webb, Capt. E. E. Hatch, Maj. Ragan, Col. George Blakeley and the host and hostess.

Miss Marie Ballentyne entertained informally at her home on Monday afternoon at tea. Miss Helen MacLean captured a lovely basket of flowers as a prize in a guessing game which created great enjoyment. Miss Ballentyne's guests were Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Gertrude Berg, Miss Helen MacLean, Miss E. E. Farnes, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Ruth Richards and others.

Miss Ann Holman, one of the charming mainlanders who has spent the summer visiting at Fort Shafter and other army posts, is leaving for the mainland in the next transport. Miss Halloran has been entertained extensively during her stay here and has made many friends who regret that she is to leave the islands.

A New Amusement for Fort Shafter Folk.

The officers and ladies at Fort Shafter are delighted. An electric piano, one of the nicest in the slot affairs, has been installed at the Officers' Club and now the damasks are quite in vogue at the post. Tea and sandwiches are served at the club during the late afternoon hours and the tango, maxixe and fox-trot are "madly the rage."

Fort Shafter is now quite like the posts in story books, where good-looking officers and pretty girls dance in the afternoons. Authors of fiction have in almost every instance managed to create romantic courtships at just such entertainments and Dame Rumor says that it would need but little imagination to picture a "glittering cupid hovering about the club house with his ever-ready bow and arrow."

Madame R. has even gone so far as to say that since the piano has been installed one or two of the golden missiles have been aimed truly. Anon.

The First of a Series of Concerts at Punahou.

The Punahou School of Music is inviting the public to a violin and piano recital on Saturday, October 2, in Charles R. Bishop hall at 8 o'clock. This is the first of a series of Saturday evening concerts which are to be a feature of the music department this year. Mr. Edwin Ideier, the new violin master at the academy, is to play before his first Honolulu audience, and his success is most assured, having played to audiences both in America and abroad. Miss Clarke will accompany Mr. Ideier and Mr. French, and will render a number of piano solos.

Glowing Supper at Outrigger Club.

A number of the members of the academy set themselves down to the Outrigger Club last evening for a swim, a bite and a twirl in the new pavilion. A Hawaiian quartet furnished delightful music during dinner and afterwards music for dancing. This has become the regular weekly form of entertainment for the students and is most popular. The party was championed by Mr. and Mrs. William Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. S. Hawk. The guests included Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Peggy Richards, Miss Sybil Carter, Miss Gertrude Ripley, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Kathleen Walker, Miss Ruth Seybold, Miss Marion Lightfoot, Miss Gladstone Gifford, George Bromley, Ernest Mott Smith, John Gifford, Gray Zoritskie, Gustave Ballentyne, Francis Dodge, Shirley Bush, LeRoy Bush, Gordon Gibb, Gordon Brown, Sam Carter, Edwin Ideier, Harry Priddle, Billy Noble, Rae Meisner, Ernest Podmore, Donald Brown, "Buster" Brown and others.

Society Personals

Many letters of congratulation have been received by the Dan McCorrissons this week for on Tuesday the stork visited their home, leaving a delightful little baby boy.

Mrs. Charles I. Neas and Miss Harriet I. Neas are leaving for the mainland Tuesday in the Matsonia. They will spend six or six months in San Francisco and will visit the exposition. They expect to be there when the gates of the fair are closed on the fourth of December.

Ensign and Mrs. F. J. Lowry entertained at a launch cruise on Thursday evening when the moon was at its full. At about 11 o'clock the party returned and a Dutch supper was served aboard the Alert. Ensign and Mrs. Lowry's guests included Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Bates, Dr. and Mrs. Walter W. Cross, Lieut. and Mrs. J. O'Hara, Farnes and Mrs. C. C. Cord, Miss Louise Richards, Miss Pitt Mr. Marshall and Mr. Shirley Bush.

Many vegetables can be canned as easily as fruits for winter use.

CALLING DAYS FOR HONOLULU

Mondays—Punahou, Makiki.
Tuesdays—Waikiki, Kapiolani.
Park, Kaimuki, Palolo. First.
Tuesdays—Fort Ruger.
Wednesdays—Nuuuanu, Punani.
Pacific Heights. First and third.
Wednesdays, above the Nuuanu bridge, second and fourth Wednesdays, below bridge, fourth.
Wednesdays, Pacific Heights, first and third Wednesdays, Alewa Heights.
Thursdays—The Plains.
Fridays—Hotels and town.
Fourth Friday, Fort Shafter, first.
Friday, Manoa, College Hills.
First and third Friday.
Saturdays—Kalihi, third and fourth Saturdays, Kamehameha schools, last Saturday.
Fort Shafter—Calling day every Friday.

Note—The telephone number of the Society Editor is 2799.

the summer visiting at Fort Shafter and other army posts, is leaving for the mainland in the next transport. Miss Halloran has been entertained extensively during her stay here and has made many friends who regret that she is to leave the islands.

A New Amusement for Fort Shafter Folk.

The officers and ladies at Fort Shafter are delighted. An electric piano, one of the nicest in the slot affairs, has been installed at the Officers' Club and now the damasks are quite in vogue at the post. Tea and sandwiches are served at the club during the late afternoon hours and the tango, maxixe and fox-trot are "madly the rage."

Fort Shafter is now quite like the posts in story books, where good-looking officers and pretty girls dance in the afternoons. Authors of fiction have in almost every instance managed to create romantic courtships at just such entertainments and Dame Rumor says that it would need but little imagination to picture a "glittering cupid hovering about the club house with his ever-ready bow and arrow."

Madame R. has even gone so far as to say that since the piano has been installed one or two of the golden missiles have been aimed truly. Anon.

The First of a Series of Concerts at Punahou.

The Punahou School of Music is inviting the public to a violin and piano recital on Saturday, October 2, in Charles R. Bishop hall at 8 o'clock. This is the first of a series of Saturday evening concerts which are to be a feature of the music department this year. Mr. Edwin Ideier, the new violin master at the academy, is to play before his first Honolulu audience, and his success is most assured, having played to audiences both in America and abroad. Miss Clarke will accompany Mr. Ideier and Mr. French, and will render a number of piano solos.

Glowing Supper at Outrigger Club.

A number of the members of the academy set themselves down to the Outrigger Club last evening for a swim, a bite and a twirl in the new pavilion. A Hawaiian quartet furnished delightful music during dinner and afterwards music for dancing. This has become the regular weekly form of entertainment for the students and is most popular. The party was championed by Mr. and Mrs. William Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. S. Hawk. The guests included Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Peggy Richards, Miss Sybil Carter, Miss Gertrude Ripley, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Kathleen Walker, Miss Ruth Seybold, Miss Marion Lightfoot, Miss Gladstone Gifford, George Bromley, Ernest Mott Smith, John Gifford, Gray Zoritskie, Gustave Ballentyne, Francis Dodge, Shirley Bush, LeRoy Bush, Gordon Gibb, Gordon Brown, Sam Carter, Edwin Ideier, Harry Priddle, Billy Noble, Rae Meisner, Ernest Podmore, Donald Brown, "Buster" Brown and others.

Society Personals

Many letters of congratulation have been received by the Dan McCorrissons this week for on Tuesday the stork visited their home, leaving a delightful little baby boy.

Mrs. Charles I. Neas and Miss Harriet I. Neas are leaving for the mainland Tuesday in the Matsonia. They will spend six or six months in San Francisco and will visit the exposition. They expect to be there when the gates of the fair are closed on the fourth of December.

Ensign and Mrs. F. J. Lowry entertained at a launch cruise on Thursday evening when the moon was at its full. At about 11 o'clock the party returned and a Dutch supper was served aboard the Alert. Ensign and Mrs. Lowry's guests included Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Bates, Dr. and Mrs. Walter W. Cross, Lieut. and Mrs. J. O'Hara, Farnes and Mrs. C. C. Cord, Miss Louise Richards, Miss Pitt Mr. Marshall and Mr. Shirley Bush.

Many vegetables can be canned as easily as fruits for winter use.

Ladies

will be interested in
will be interested in
an announcement
an announcement

by Whitney & Marsh

which will appear in
which will appear in
The Sunday Advertiser
The Sunday Advertiser

The Wednesday Star-Bulletin
The Wednesday Star-Bulletin

MODART CORSETS

Give the Modart Corset the Fitting-Room Test

FRONT adjustment means right adjustment. That is one of the reasons for MODART supremacy.

A better fit—truer comfort—more perfect poise—are the result of MODART designing and quality manufacture.

The boning in MODARTS will not rust or make a permanent bend at the waist line.

The Lindsey supporter, used on MODARTS, has a felt button which does not injure the hosiery.

These are details to show the care and quality maintained throughout. The only way to properly judge a corset is to try it on. Give the MODART Corset the fitting-room test. You will be surprised—delighted—in the new corset style, comfort and fit you will find.

SACHS Hotel and Union

"Ask For Notaseme Hosiery"

When women ask for a certain sort of silk or lisle hose it means they have worn and found it to be good, or that somebody else has found it good and recommended it. Women ask for this new line of Notaseme Hosiery. Thin and ganzy, durable, comfortable, with high splicing above heel, 4-ply cable twist heel and toe. Silk-lisle, 25c. Pure silk, 50c.

Canton Dry Goods Co.,

64 S. Hotel St., near Fort.

Just Received

A Large Assortment of

PINEAPPLE SILK AND

COTTON CREPE EMBROIDERED

DRESS PATTERNS

in the latest designs—also

PONGEE PARASOLS

with folding handles, suitable for mailing.

East Indian Store,

Blaisdell Building 1150 Fort Street